

Roberto Ríos, Laura Alemán and Vanessa Méndez

Mexico

Attorneys

Memberships

Roberto Ríos:

- Active member of the Mexican Bar Association
- Subcoordinator of the Commercial Law Commission

Education

Roberto Ríos:

- Panamerican University, Mexico
Law Degree (1989)
Economic-Corporate Law course (1987)
Tax specialization course (1990)
- National Bank and Securities Commission, Certification as legal auditor for Stock Exchange Houses
- Areas of Specialization: Corporate Law, Foreign Investments and Banking.

Laura Alemán:

- Graduated from the National University of Mexico (UNAM), 1996
Intellectual Property Advisor.
Graduate in Law, with the Thesis named "Analisis of the articles 151 fractions I,II and IV, and 90 of the Industrial Property Law, in order to determined if a Trademark Registration is partially vicious of nullity and the proceedings for its annulment".
 - Intellectual Property Courses:
 - "Intellectual Property Courses ", given by the Mexican Association for the Intellectual Property Protection (AMMPII)
 - Alternative means of solution of controversies in matters of Intellectual Property.
 - Current problematic of Intellectual Property proceedings.
 - Administrative Proceeding Federal Law reforms.
 - Intellectual Property offenses.
 - Current Perspective of the Mexican franchise system.
 - The Intellectual Property protection in the Internet.
 - The International legal framework for the Intellectual Property.
 - Injunction trial
- Amongst others.

Professional History

- Consultancy related to the request and processing of the inventions registration, utility models, industrial models, industrial designs, trademarks, domain names, commercial advertisements and commercial names, as well as all the other to administrative proceedings before the Mexican Institute of Intellectual Property (IMPI) and disputes before the corresponding instances, with the object to protect the client's intellectual property rights.

Roberto Ríos:

- Currently provides legal consultancies to Stock Exchange Houses and Credit institutions, which in accordance to its applicable rules, the authorities demand to carry out in a yearly basis.
- As a result of the financial law reforms, which incorporated dispositions related to the corporate government, Mr. Ríos has acted as Normative Controller for a Stock Exchange House, as well as an Insurance Institution.
- Mr. Ríos holds the position of counselor and secretary of the Public and Private Enterprises Administration Council.
- In the financial sector, Roberto Ríos is an independent consultant of diverse investment societies managed by an Investment Society Operating Company as well as and Stock Exchange House.
- In the educational area, Roberto Ríos has taught Commercial and Bank Law and in the Iberoamerican University

Laura Alemán:

- Specialized during 10 years in corporative handling of distinctive signs, copyrights and inventions, and the protection, procedures and recovery of Industrial Property's Rights.
- Legal consultant about Intellectual Property's licenses, franchises, obligations and rights cessions.